

Smooth sailing on high seas

Sherine Paul. Mumbai

Clear skies and cool winds welcomed the third edition of the Mumbai International match race that started with a show starter event on Saturday off H20 Chowpatty with six corporate teams competing for the coveted trophy. The teams are Kingfisher, West Coast Marine, ISS, Trident, Z3 and H20.

The qualifying race was a fleet race which Trident won closely followed by ISS. India's all-girls Kingfisher sailing team consisting of Ayesha Lobo with her team of Hermann Kaur and Roshni Pahlajani finished third. ISS Facility Services had the last laugh though when they beat Trident in the final round to clinch the title.

The ISS Mumbai International Match Race 2009 from 2-5 October will feature India and international teams like Russia, Estonia, Sweden, Korea, Bahrain, France, Ireland and Thailand. The Indian challenge will be led by Arjuna Awardee Cdr R Mahesh.
